Staff Development Day

School Ethos and Support for Students

The Discipline and Counseling Committee aims to nurture students to become more self-aware and self-disciplined, guiding them to become good and successful citizens in the future. We organize various activities in collaboration with other committees and external organizations to enhance students' campus life.

Students participated in different activities to challenge themselves.

The Discipline Committee cultivates students' discipline, leadership skills and national identity by organizing the Prefect Team and the Junior Police Call. These efforts are put into practice through regular duty assignments, flag-raising ceremonies, and other school services. Our school's flag-raising team has demonstrated outstanding performance, receiving multiple awards and often being invited to perform at public events.

Our JPC Team awarded Champion in the a flag-raising competition.

Practice makes perfect.

The school's three-year development plan emphasizes the importance of nurturing students' care and concern for the school and community. The Counseling Committee facilitates and

Learning and Teaching

School-based curriculum

Our College uses student centred teaching approach, cooperative learning, mass lectures and graded worksheets, etc. to cater for the diverse needs, interest, and abilities of learners and help them develop generic skills.

A school-based Chinese Curriculum is designed for Non-Chinese speaking students in order to prepare them for the IGCSE, GCE Chinese Exam or HKDSE Chinese Exam.

In junior forms, our College focuses on building a firm foundation in the core subjects, Chinese, English and Mathematics.

Few native English-speaking teachers (NET) are employed to teach English and our College fosters English speaking environment by encouraging students from different cultural backgrounds to communicate in English.

In addition, after-school remedial classes are arranged for junior form students to foster a solid foundation in their junior secondary education.

In senior forms, our College aims at providing a board based HKDSE curriculum to develop students' potential.

S5 and 6 extra classes

In every academic year, the S5 and S6 students start their classes in mid August. Moreover, S5 and S6 students are arranged with an additional 10th lesson each day after school. This aims at helping the S5 and S6 students to achieve better results in the HKDSE.

Inclusive Education

Whole School Approach to Support Diverse Student Learning

Our school implements the "Whole School Approach" to inclusive education, collaborating with the Student Support Committee and various subject teachers to address the diversity of student learning needs. The Chinese and Mathematics subjects group students based on their learning abilities. This strategy allows teachers to cater for the learning differences while facilitating student learning.

The Committee provides professional assessments and counseling for students in need, which includes services from speech therapists, occupational therapists, educational psychologists, and school social workers. This enables the early identification of student needs. The Committee develops individual educational plans for students, offers classroom learning support, conducts after school tutorial groups, and adjusts homework and assessments to support student learning.

To promote holistic development, the Committee arranges activities such as social groups, peer tutoring groups, and speech training group for students who require assistance. These activities aim to enhance their confidence and social skills. Additionally, the Committee provides opportunities for various experiential learning groups, inclusive activities, and participation in different types of competitions to help students unleash their potential.

STEAM Activities STEAM

The main goal of the STEAM Committee is to enrich our students' integration of knowledge through various cross-curricular activities. Additionally, we encouraged students to participate in external programs and competitions to broaden their horizons and enhance their problem-solving skills.

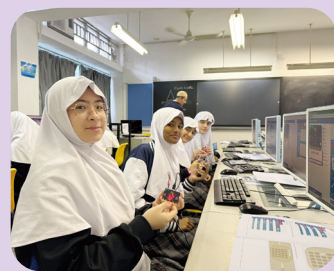

Information Day

Our students provided assistance to the children in operating the robotic arm during the STEAM Future Architect Competition on Information Day.

STEAM Project

Students utilized programming skills to create a compass using a micro:bit as part of their cross-curricular STEAM project. The compass was specifically designed to help determine the direction of Qibla.

Inter-school STEAM Activities

Students had the opportunity to consult with Dr. Chan from Hong Kong Baptist University to explore the possibility of generating electricity using a basketball.

Students presented their innovative project using boxing gloves as power generators to PEDSE students at Secondary School.

Forensic Science Course

Students collaborated to reconstruct a human face.

The Schools Challenge 2024

Students visited Zero Carbon Park to learn about new technologies used in green building as part of their preparation for The Hong Kong Schools Challenge, co-organized by Junior Achievement Hong Kong and J.P. Morgan.

Our students achieved remarkable success in The Schools Challenge 2024, including Best Presentation, Best Prototype, and Active Participation.

Service Learning STEAM Project organized by the Hong Kong Polytechnic University (PolyU)

Our students successfully completed the 8-day service learning STEAM project organized by PolyU. Throughout the project, they gained valuable knowledge and skills in utilizing AI recognition systems to assist individuals with visual impairments.

Promotion of Reading

Promotion of Reading:

In Chinese saying: “A house without books is like a room without windows” to emphasize the importance of reading. In addition, the first message revealed by Allah in the Holy Quran started with “Iqra” – “Read”. Reading is very important in learning, learning to read and reading to learn are the keys to success in self-directed learning. Our College organizes a series of activities to promote reading, including:

Morning Reading Programme

The School Library has organized the “Morning Reading Programme” every Monday during the class teacher period to encourage students to read. Students read the Young Post during the Morning Reading Time to enhance their understanding of Hong Kong, the Mainland, and the world.

Reading Resources

Students can access both books and e-books through different electronic reading devices – such as Kindle and Kobo - in the library, which offers more options to enhance their interest in reading.

E-learning Platforms

Additionally, the library has equipped itself with several e-learning platforms, such as i-Learner, HKedcity, and Rainbow, to enhance their overall reading horizons.

Students read through the e-learning platforms

S.1 Library Orientation

New S.1 students were introduced to the library's facilities and rules during an orientation session held in August.

Reading Competition

Students were encouraged to participate in the “4.23 World Book Day Creative Competition” organized by the Hong Kong Public Library.

Reading Week

During the reading week, the Library organized several activities to immerse students in the reading atmosphere:

1. Bookstore Visit

Organizing library prefects on a visit to Commercial Press, where they could source their favourite books for the School Library.

2. Book Fair

In collaboration with Commercial Press, a two-day book fair was organized on campus. Students expressed their excitement at being able to shop at school.

3. Competitions

Two competitions were held: the “Book Review Competition” and the “Book Cover Design Competition”, both aimed at promoting reading.

4.Mask Making Workshop

To cultivate students' appreciation for Chinese literature, a Mask Making Workshop on the topic "Romance of the Three Kingdoms" was organized to introduce them to different characters of the story.

5.Herbal Pouch Making Workshop

"Dream of the Red Chamber", a legendary, was introduced to arouse students' interest in reading the novel and to develop their appreciation for classic Chinese literature.

E-learning

To support the implementation of the e-learning program, we have outfitted all classrooms with interactive smartboards and equipped our Multimedia Learning Center (MMLC) with iMac computers. Additionally, students have developed the habit of using online learning platforms or software, such as Google Classroom, Kahoot, and GeoGebra, etc. for interaction and learning.

To further enrich our students' exposure to emerging technologies, we have introduced several new eLearning platforms this year. PREFACE was utilized to help students create their own unique NFT artworks, deepening their understanding of blockchain technology and digital assets. CoSpaces allowed students to explore coding and design within a virtual reality environment, sparking their creativity and problem-solving skills. Additionally, our PE students benefited from "Learning Fun.com", which provided them with engaging theories, skill-building exercises, and data analysis tools to support their Physical Education.

Education Bureau School-based Support Program

This year, the Chinese Department participated in the School-based Support Program, "Supporting Non-Chinese Speaking Students in Learning Chinese" Learning Community for Secondary Chinese Language Teachers organized by the Education Bureau.

Our Panel head of the Chinese Department, Miss LO, was invited to be a Resource Teacher in the Language Learning Support Section to support NCS learning and teaching of Chinese Language. Through meetings and collaboration with other curriculum leaders, she explored new ideas in teaching.

We aimed to integrate Chinese cultural elements into the school-based curriculum. For example, a Cultural Walk in Chai Wan" was organized for S4 students, allowing them to gain a deeper understanding of the Chai Wan community. After that, they also joined the filming competition to showcase their learning.

Students attended the award presentation ceremony of the "Cultural Dialogue" Video Competition organised by the Language Learning Support Section of the Education Bureau.

IGCSE Chinese Examination

Last year, 22 students achieved Level 7 or higher in the International General Certificate of Secondary Education (IGCSE) Chinese Exam.

Museum visits and interdisciplinary learning activities

This year, we collaborated with the English Department to arrange the S3 students to visit the Flagstaff House Museum of Tea Ware. In addition to learning about the premise, which is a declared monument, the program also introduced students to traditional tea-drinking culture in China. Furthermore, students were arranged to enjoy an English Drama show about the traditional Chinese story "Romance of the Three Kingdoms".

Students listened attentively to the docents' explanations and learned about traditional Chinese tea culture and the art of seal engraving.

Students designed their own tea pot after the visit to the Museum.

Chinese Week

Chinese Week was successfully held before the Chinese Lunar New Year. The teachers in the panel organized various activities, such as Chinese “Fai Chun” Writing and Tongue Twister Competition. This year, we also hosted an “Old Ancient Village” event, where teachers and students enjoyed different booths that allowed them to visualize old Chinese culture through games.

Moreover, Face Changing master was invited to perform Sichuan “Face Changing” at the school. Our students have experienced the uniqueness of this intangible cultural heritage.

Students experienced the traditional diabolo techniques.

Students experienced blacksmithing techniques.

NCS students helped to cater traditional Chinese carrot cake

Teachers and students learnt to write “Fai Chun”.

Teachers and students enjoyed the stalls of “Old Ancient Village”.

Students enjoyed the Sichuan “Face Changing” performance.

Out-of-school Experience and Achievements

This year some students participated in various Chinese competitions and activities such as the 75th Hong Kong Schools Speech Festival and the Cantonese speech competition, providing them with numerous opportunities to use Chinese in their daily practices.

English Debate

The school's English Debate team had an exceptional year, achieving success at both the Seniors and Juniors levels. The Seniors team was crowned champions in the first term. Moving into the second term, the Juniors team continued the strong performance and won several rounds of hard-fought battles. The Debate team's hard work paid off when they competed in the Grand Finals, where they earned the 1st runner-up trophy as well as the prestigious Best Speaker award.

English Week

Another year of English activities was in store for our IKTMCCers during English Week. This year, our students not only went on field trips but also participated in many English-related activities and competitions.

English Computer Game Competition

The field trips included visits to CityU's CLP Power Low Carbon Energy Education Centre, a water treatment plant as well as the Flagstaff House of Tea-ware. The lunchtime activities included a Mother's Day booth, a Vocabulary Trivia Game target takedown, a Captions Contest, a Scrabble Tournament, and an English Computer Game Tournament called Semantris.

Drama Appreciation

The Department of English and the Department of Chinese collaborated in leading S4 students to appreciate the drama "Strategy", organized by AFTEC's "From Page to Stage" program. The play is based on the history of the Three Kingdoms period but is performed in English.

The pre-show workshop allowed students to delve deeper into the creative process and artistic approaches of the production. Drama appreciation enabled S4 students to personally witness the live performance and experience the artistic vision brought to life on stage.

S4 students attending a drama performance.

English Drama

The IKTMC English drama team is always a thriving community of passionate performers. Students explore all aspects of Drama Club, from brainstorming and writing the story to performing the drama show on stage. This year, students and teachers have created a dramatic story aligned with our school theme - 'Time Flies'.

Mathematics

Throughout the academic year, several targeted teaching plans and activities were implemented.

Mathematics Activities

A variety of interactive, enjoyable, and educational activities were arranged across various educational divisions with the aim of improving students' comprehension of mathematical concepts and fostering their enthusiasm for the subject.

Math Puzzles

Hands-on Learning Experience

These interactive activities provided opportunities for students to apply mathematical principles in practical and meaningful ways, deepening their understanding of the subject.

Math Maze: Solve questions to find way out of the maze.

Math Scavenger Hunt

Targeted Teaching Strategies

1. Small class sizes teaching allowed individualized attention and engagement and improve academic performance.
2. The flipped classroom model has been commonly used in mathematics classes. It helps increase independent active learning and develop higher-order thinking skills.
3. HKDSE preparation quizzes were conducted throughout S6 study period to help students familiarize themselves with and prepare for the HKDSE.

External Competitions

Students participated in various mathematics competitions to broaden their exposure and refine their mathematical skills. These competitions provided opportunities for students to showcase their abilities, engage in challenging problem-solving tasks, and further develop their proficiency in mathematics.

HK Civic Education Quiz Contest

Our school had an impressive representation of around 25 students in the finals of the first-ever English-based HK Civic Education Quiz Contest, organized by Hope Federation Limited.

The finals were held on 2 December, 2023. In the senior category, our students emerged as the champion and secured the 2nd runner-up position. In the junior category, our students showcased their strength once again by clinching the champion, 1st runner-up, and 2nd runner-up titles.

Among the competitors, a number of them were from local band 1 schools. With well preparation, the contest was a testament to our students' knowledge and understanding of civic education.

“China in my Eyes” Photography Competition

Our students participated in the “China in my Eyes” Photography Competition, jointly organized by the Eastern District Youth Community and Civic Education Committee, as well as the Eastern District School Liaison Committee. Four students received the merit award for their outstanding entries, which showcased distinctive features of China.

S.5 Mainland Study Tour

As a compulsory part of the CSD curriculum, S5 students and teachers visited Shenzhen as part of the Mainland Study Tour on 25 June, 2024. This one-day trip was meaningful, as our students visited the Nanshan Museum and the Nantou Ancient City. This allowed them to further understand the preservation of cultural heritage alongside technological development in modern China and uplifted their sense of national identity.

Youth Development Blueprint

Over the years, the government has organised, funded, and co-ordinated various youth development programmes. As a result, our students promoted the Youth Development Blueprint program to encourage all students to broaden their horizons and learn about and grasp the diversified development opportunities available.
